Dear Harriet:

Thank you for sending me a copy of your letter to Mr. Jones concerning the Lucile Elliott scholarship award.

If we do have the funds to offer the scholarship this year, I would like to receive several application forms as two University of North Carolina students have expressed an interest in applying. They may wish to attend Mary Oliver's course in law librarianship this summer.

I think it would be appropriate to offer the scholarship to students attending Mary's course in law librarianship. However, I do not think the award should be limited to this course. Mary concurs with me in this view. When we draft our letter offering the scholarship, Mary's course should be included as one of the possibilities for the use of the scholarship with no inference that this is the preferred use.

I am sending a copy of this letter to Mr. U. V. Jones and to each member of the Scholarship Committee.

Yours very truly,

Kathleen Chespe
